    My Brother,he's

the kind
    cries at funerals

of vague Hibernian
          homosexuals
      and afterwards

      we drink
      to sharpen up

      a prayer:
spare not the dead queer
nor any race anywhere.